The House of Veuve A. Devaux was founded in 1846 and was run by one of Champagne's great characters, Madame Augusta Devaux. In 1986 the house was entrusted to a group of the leading growers in Champagne, with over 1400 hectares of vineyards in the heart of the prestigious Cote des Bar.

This region produces some of the finest Pinot Noir in the appellation and Devaux selects the very best pockets of fruit to be blended with premium Chardonnay for their range of products.

Grande Réserve - Blended from up to 30 vineyards, it is the Pinot Noir which dominates this truly classic wine and gives it a richness and individual charm.

Grand Réserve - Single vineyard 100% Syrah. Deep and dark exotic spices on a concentrate frame of ripe, dark fruits. 375ml (12 btls in a case)

Cuvée Rosé Blanc de Noirs - From the white juice of red Pinot Noir grapes. This cuveé has a rich & powerful bouquet roundness and variety of subtle flavours.

La Cuvée - The grapes, Chardonnay & Pinot Noir, are chosen before the vintage because of their perfect maturity & flavour.

Le Millésime 1996 - An assemblage of harmony between the rounded depth of Pinot Noir & fresh crispness of Chardonnay.
